

Advances, Challenges and Issues in Black and Latino Librarianship in America

Saturday, June 29, 2013/ 3:00-4:30 PM @ MCP - S103d

Join contributing authors of two recent publications about Black and Latino librarianship in America. They will speak about inspiring and thought provoking issues and advances and will propose collaborations and steps for the future.

Speakers: Luis Herrera, Andrew Jackson, Loida García-Febo, Julius Jr. Jefferson, Akilah S. Nosakhere and Susan Luévano.

Publications: The 21st-Century Black Librarian in America: Issues and Challenges (April 2012) Andrew P. Jackson (Editor), Julius Jr. Jefferson (Editor), Akilah S. Nosakhere (Editor). Pathways to Progress: Issues and Advances in Latino Librarianship (November 2011) by John L. Ayala (Editor), Sal Güereña.