

Connecting Multilingual Patrons with Legal Information: Key Resources

Presented by REFORMA in affiliation with the American Library Association

A workshop focusing on Spanish-language resources for librarians assisting low-income and vulnerable patrons facing legal issues.

Saturday, June 29, 2013

Palmer House Hilton
Spire Parlor
17 East Monroe Street
8:30 A.M.—10:00 A.M.

We will highlight:

- LawHelpEspanol.org— a national gateway to websites providing free legal information
- CitizenshipWorks.org—a website and companion app assisting individuals understand the naturalizations process
- AyudaLegalIL.org— a Spanish –language website that provides legal information via video, articles and automated documents
- Library/Legal Services Partnerships— collaborative models the provide programming to bilingual and Spanish-speakers

For more information and to register: www.Reforma.org/ALA2013

 Illinois Legal Aid Online
Improving access to justice through technology

probono.net