Late one winter night a little girl and her father go owling. The trees stand still as statues and the world is silent as a dream.

Whoo-whoo-whoo, the father calls to the mysterious nighttime bird.

But there is no answer.

Wordlessly the two companions walk along, for when you go owling you don't need words. You don't need anything but hope. Sometimes there isn't an owl, but sometimes there is.

Distinguished author Jane Yolen has created a gentle, poetic story that lovingly depicts the special companionship of a young child and her father as well as humankind's close relationship to the natural world.

Sales tips:
- A classic.
- Translated by Teresa Mlawer.
- Wonderfully complemented by John Schoenherr's soft, exquisite watercolor illustrations, this is a verbal and visual treasure, perfect for reading aloud and at bedtime.

Whether you are happy, sad, angry, or just blah, in this book you will find your perfect pet!

More than Pets is a full color illustrated book in which Raquel Gu humorously recreates the most common emotions and feelings that children experience by inventing a pet for each emotion. Thus, offering imaginary characters designed to help small readers identify their emotions.

Among others, we have the pet of sadness, a blue big-eyed pet that hugs the sad child and wipes away the tears until the grief disappears; the pet of peace and calm, soft, pink, and fluffy, which relaxes children by resting on them; to the anti-shame pet, a kind of bodyguard that offers children security.

Sales tips:
- Original in Spanish.
- Social Emotional perfect for reading aloud.
- Each drawing is accompanied by a brief description in verse that makes it easy to memorize and remember the characters in the book.
- Adorable pictures.
Let’s take care of life on Earth!

Gaia is worried, she knows that Earth urgently needs help, but what can a girl like her do when the entire planet is facing a climatic emergency?

Luckily, her grandmother Lila knows how to help her: they will travel from her magical cabin to remote places and discover the stories of those towns that are already standing up and confronting the climate problem.

With courage, passion, and empowerment there are solutions to every problem, however large and unreachable they may seem.

Roald Dahl's darkly funny masterpiece, The Witches, now available as a graphic novel from Eisner Award-winning artist Pénélope Bagieu!

Witches are real, and they are very, very dangerous. They wear ordinary clothes and have ordinary jobs, living in ordinary towns all across the world - and there's nothing they despise more than children. When an eight-year-old boy and his grandmother come face-to-face with the Grand High Witch herself, they may be the only ones who can stop the witches' latest plot to stamp out every last child in the country!
